Comment for Type of Reporting Person: Amundi does not have the voting rights on 984,051 shares which are held through a FCPE (Fonds Commun de Placement d'Entreprise, an investment vehicle established under French law), solely dedicated to Energy Recovery groups employees shareholding. Employees of Energy Recovery are granted the right to participate in stock purchase plans in which the shares acquired are exclusively held in this FCPE, created at the request of Energy Recovery. The voting rights associated to these shares are exercised by the supervisory Board of the FCPE, where representatives of the employees have the majority (if any the remaining seats of the supervisory board are designated by Energy Recovery), and not by Amundi.
